DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE

THE DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE (DFAIT) manages Canada's political, economic and cultural relations with other nations on a bilateral basis as well as through the international organizations to which Canada belongs. The department helps Canadian companies succeed internationally while promoting Canada as a dynamic place in which to do business, and negotiating and administering trade agreements.

The department provides an assertive foreign policy that pursues Canadian interests, projects Canadian values and culture worldwide and protects Canada's security. It supplies business (trade and investment), passport and other services to Canadians travelling, working or doing business abroad. And it supports the international activities of federal, provincial and territorial partners at Canada's missions around the world. The formal mandate of the Department is:

- ensuring that Canada's foreign policy reflects true Canadian values and advances Canada's national interests;
- strengthening rules-based trading arrangements and to expand free and fair market access at bilateral, regional and global levels; and
- working with a range of partners inside and outside government to achieve increased economic opportunity and enhanced security for Canada and for Canadians at home and abroad.
